Methodology for Evaluation of Openness of State Archives (OSA)

Introduction

The public has the right of access to archives of public bodies. Openness of archives is not only an issue related to interests of historians or specialists, but an issue of access to information, which in itself is a human right. The OSA Methodology is envisioned to be universal with the goal of assessing the standards of access to archives, identifying the strengths and weaknesses of the legal frameworks and their enforcement firstly in post-soviet space and then around the globe.

Structure and Logic

The Methodology is composed of 88 indicators, each of which granted different weight and index of social importance.

The Methodology covers all the major components of openness of state archives: from the legislative framework, to access to archival files in the reading room and via online sources, and freedom of access to archival files/records and relevant databases (online sources, catalogues, inventories, etc.).

The selection of indicators for the Methodology was largely based on the principles of access to archives adopted by the International Council on Archives (ICA) that elaborated the following general principles:

- Archives and archivists should promote the widest possible access to archival materials and provide an impartial service to all users.
- Archives and archivists should respect both access to information and privacy, and act within the boundaries of relevant legislation.
- Institutions holding the archival fonds ensure that restrictions on access are clear and of stated duration, are based on pertinent legislation, acknowledge the right of privacy, and respect the rights of owners of private materials.
- The access rules apply equally to all individuals without discrimination. When a closed file is reviewed and access to it is granted to a member of the general public, the file is available to all other members of the public under the same terms and conditions.

Various best practices were also reviewed: the analytical report „Open Access to KGB Archives: Ukraine’s Experience for Eastern Partnership Countries” („Открытый доступ к архивам КГБ: Украинский опыт для стран восточного партнерства“), a guide-book „Right for the Truth“ („Право на правду“), as well as other best practices and adopted documents. We also analyzed all the archival and other relevant laws in each country to be evaluated.

The documents and standards mentioned above do not contain methodologies or indicators for evaluating archives; this we elaborated through cooperation with our partners. The resulting methodology is unique by its essence. All the indicators have been properly referenced.

During the indicator selection and elaboration process, an effort was made to ensure that our Methodology could be used for all state archives in the target states. The Methodology and its indicators were elaborated with the active participation of the organizations and independent experts, who have the most expertise and experience in given area.

The indicators are divided into five groups (benchmark indicators) that represent the key characteristics of a well-functioning system of open access to the state archives in post-soviet countries. These groups are:

1. Homogeneity of the legislative framework:
 - 1.1 General archival legislation;
 - 1.2 Other legislation referring to FOI and archives;
 - 1.3 Archive services;
2. Website: Archive websites and distant and online services;
3. Reading room: Services and procedures for the researchers physically working in the archives.

Limitations

Access to archives varies significantly by country. The OSA Methodology is intended to be applicable on a global scale, meaning that the indicators cannot be too specific and cannot cover all the possible variations and exceptions.

About the Project

The Methodology has been developed within the framework of the project - Enhancing Openness of State Archives in Former Soviet Republics.

The project was funded by the Open Society Institute Budapest Foundation (OSI) and has been implemented by a Georgia-based civil society organization Institute for Development of Freedom of Information \(IDFI\) on its initial stage together with the nine partner organizations or/and individual experts from each country in the Eurasian region covered by the project:

- Armenia - Hranush Kharatyan, NGO „Hazarashen“ Armenian Center for Ethnological Studies, Researcher
- Azerbaijan – Eldar Zeynalov, Human Rights Center, Director, Journalist
- Belarus - Dmitriy Drozd, Belarusian Documentation Center, Researcher
- Georgia: Anton Vatcharadze, Institute for Development of Freedom of Information \(IDFI\), Researcher
- Kazakhstan – Araylim Musagallieva, Eurasian National University, Professor
- Kyrgyzstan – Nurbek Toktakunov, Partner Group „Precedent“, Director
- Moldova - Igor Casu, Center for Study of Totalitarian Regimes and Cold War, State University of Moldova, Historian
- Russia –Lawyer
- Ukraine – Ihor Chernichenko, Kharkiv Human Rights protection Group, Historian
- Uzbekistan - Historian

In its initial stage, the project - Enhancing Openness of State Archive in Former Soviet Republics covers only the Eastern Partnership (EaP) Region, Russia, and some of the Central Asian states; however, we are planning to scale the methodology up to larger regions in the future. Due to a large number of archives in some countries (e.g. Russia, with 15 state archives on the federal level) not all the archives are evaluated in the above countries. We will continue to evaluate the archives that have not been evaluated at the first stage of the project in the future.

Scoring System

Indicators included in the OSA Methodology are granted different weight and provided by index of social importance, which is measured by one of the four qualitative indicators (4, 3, 2 or 1). Such indexes will show the importance of the indicator and its influence on the openness of archives.

Each indicator can be evaluated by the interim score from 0 to 1 points, depending on the completeness of the answer, or the indicator cannot be applied to the given archive:

1. Gives a complete answer to the question - maximum 1 point.
2. Gives a high quality answer to the question - 0.75
3. Gives a medium quality answer to the question - 0.5
4. Gives a low quality answer to the question - 0.25
5. Does not answer the question – 0
6. The indicator cannot be applied to the given archive – (-)

The final score of each indicator is calculated by multiplying its interim score by its social importance index.

For instance, if the indicator's social importance index is 4 and its interim score is 0.75 points, the final score of the indicator will be 3.

With a total of 88 indicators, openness of a state archive is rated on the scale of 0 to 257. The points will be converted to percentages for easier understanding and visualization.

At the same time, we are keeping in mind that not all the indicators can be applied to each state archive we are assessing. For example, if we are assessing archives which do not contain any fonds or files on repressive state institutions, we will not deduct points for non-relevant indicators. In such cases, the final result and the percentage will be calculated based only on relevant indicators.

Each scoring component is evaluated separately.

This scoring system and the structure of the methodology allows us to represent the results in two ways:

1. Results by Separate State Archives – Each archive will be assessed with the relevant indicators. The results will be converted in percentages and the average result will be calculated.
2. Country Overall Results and Rating – The country overall results are represented using percentages (0-100%). Countries are then ranked by their overall results.

Visualization

Visualizing the results of the assessment is crucial to the goal of the methodology. For this purpose, the overall points received by each country shall be shown graphically using the scale of 0-100%, divided into 4 quarters of a specific color:

- Low compliance with the OSA Standards – 0% to 25% (red)
- Average compliance with the OSA Standards – 26% to 50% (orange)
- Good compliance with the OSA Standards – 51% to 75% (yellow)
- Excellent compliance with the OSA Standards – 76% to 100% (green)

Visualizations will also include spider graphs depicting the countries' results by benchmark indicators and multi-colored bar graphs for comparing the countries' results in defined categories.

Terminology

This methodology uses universally accepted archival terminology as well as a few terms of its own design, in order to make the key distinctions easier. This terminology was adopted and put online by the ICA (see this link). Because of the specifics of the post-soviet archives and in order to avoid misunderstanding in some of the terms, we made our glossary bilingual, in English and Russian.

Evaluator's Commentary:

1.1.2. There are 3 reading rooms at the national archive in different locations in Yerevan:

1. The central building (Gr. Kochara str. 5)
2. The second building (Marshal Baghramyan str. 59b)
3. The branch of film-photo-audio archive (Tbilisi highway 25a)

1.1.4. — Refusal to use documents is issued only in accordance with the requirements of Article 22 of the law of the Republic of Armenia on Archive Keeping. Article 22 restricts access to documents containing state secrets and to originals of especially valuable documents, as well as archival cases with family and personal secrets for one hundred years from the date of creation of the document. Upon request of researcher, the administration of the archive justifies the refusal in writing form.

1.1.8 – The website of the National Archives of Armenia states: "All documents stored in the archive are accessible to researchers, with the exception of documents that carry confidential information and are in unsatisfactory physical condition. Access to documents of personal, party, public funds can be limited according to the will of the provenance (the "fond-maker")."

Materials produced by the Armenian SSR Film Studio "Armenfilm" can't be used for commercial purposes.

1.1.15 – RA government resolution of 2002, February 22, N168 certifying the "Order of handing to archive or destroying documents containing state secret information, or their out of maintenance time limits":

2. Declassified information constituting state and official secrets (documents containing information) are an integral part of the National Archival Fond of Armenia.
3. Information constituting the state and official secrets (documents containing information) shall be transferred to the state archive of the Republic of Armenia (hereinafter - the State Archive) from the side of the state bodies and organizations - information managers, after the expiration of the storage period and declassification within constituting state and official secrets.
4. Declassified documents constituting state and official secrets with expired periods of storage shall be transferred to the state archives for storage to the State Archives after their examination of the value of relevant inventories.

The transfer of documents is formalized by the acceptance-delivery certificate in two copies. One copy of the document is kept by the document managers in state agencies or organizations, another in the State Archive.

7. For the documents to be destroyed that contain information constituting state and official secrets, an appropriate act is drawn up. The documents are subject to destruction in the order established by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia.

1.1.17 – In accordance with point 11 of the Procedure, approved by the Decree of the Government of the Republic of Armenia N189-H of February 17, 2005 "Order of state registration of the RA archive collection".

Point 7. Registration of classified and declassified documents:

25. Registration of classified documents is conducted in accordance with the requirements of the special instruction. In registration documents and archival ciphers of storage units, secret funds, inventory, storage units are designated by the index "C" (secret), "CC" (top secret), "OB" (of particular importance).

26. Changes in accounting records based on the results of declassification of documents are made on the basis of the act on declassification of documents.

Upon declassification of all storage units on a secret inventory, the inventory is also declassified, transferred to the open storage and accounted for in the sheet of the fund for the same number, but without the index "c", which is crossed out on the cover and on the title sheet of the inventory. In the upper right corner of the cover and the title page of the inventory is stamped “Declassified”. If the secret inventory and inventory of open storage were mistakenly accounted for by the same number, then upon declassification of the inventory, it is assigned the next serial number on the fund's sheet.

1.1.19 – Permission to use documents is drawn up on the basis of the application of the user or the letter of the institution, in which the name, user name and purpose of the study are indicated. Simultaneously with the application or letter, a document confirming the identity of the user is provided, and in case of using documents containing information about the personal and family secrets of citizens, a document confirming family ties (family member, legal heir and others).

3.1. – On the Order of the Minister of Culture and Youth Affairs of the Republic of Armenia, Order 17 (December 21, 2004; N476-N) “On approving the use of documents of the Archival Fond of the Republic of Armenia that are considered as state property”. In accordance with Article 5 of the Law of the Republic of Armenia on Archive Keeping, permission for the use of documents is drawn up on the basis of the application of the user or the letter of the institution, in which the name, user name and purpose of the study are indicated. Simultaneously with the application or letter, a document confirming the identity of the user is provided, and in case of using documents containing information about the personal and family secrets of citizens, a document confirming family ties (family member, legal heir and others).

3.20 – The cost increases depending on the value of the document, which is determined by the document's prescription, for example, scanning documents of the early 20th century are more expensive.

3.37 – In accordance with Article 24 of the Law on Archive Keeping, the user of the archive document has the right to provide the document / documents provided to him / her, a copy of the document, and to publish, transmit, distribute information about the document by any legal means and with any legitimate purpose. Under Article 25 of the same law, legal entities, as well as administrative persons and citizens, are liable in violation of the Armenian legislation on archival matters in accordance with the procedure established by law.

The legislation on the storage and use of archival materials in Armenia needs a detailed revision. Some provisions need more clarity or comment. In particular, the rights to destroy materials, including secret ones, are not clearly defined. Laws, sublegal acts and resolutions do not define a specific approach to the materials of former state repressive bodies. However, the term of restriction of access to personal data or personal and / or family secrets from the moment of creation of the document is 100 years, according to point 3 of Art. 23 of the Law on Archive Keeping, and this period severely restricts access to cases of the repressed, despite the fact that in practice the archive tries to increase the availability of these cases.

Despite the fact that, according to Article 24 of the Law “on Archive Keeping, researchers have the right to publish, transmit, distribute by any legal means and with any legitimate purposes the document/s provided to them, a copy of the document, as well as information on the document. According to Article 25 of the same law, in case of violation of the Armenian legislation on archives, not only individuals, but also legal and administrative persons are responsible, which may affect the limitations of the use of the archival material.

The National Archive of Armenia is very poorly equipped. Only a few documents are digitized And the website is not user-friendly. However, there are very good, responsive, professional employees working in this institution.
